Decision

Matter of: Incore, Inc.

File: B-236997

Date: October 13, 1989

---

DIGEST

Allegations of collusive bidding and anti-trust violations are matters for the Justice Department, and will not be considered by the General Accounting Office under its bid protest function.

DECISION

Incore, Inc., protests the award of any contract under invitation for bids No. N62467-88-B-0400, issued by the Naval Facilities Engineering Command, for foam filled fenders. Incore alleges that there may have been collusive bidding activity and anti-trust violations by potential suppliers under this IFB.

We do not consider, under our bid protest function, allegations regarding restraint of trade, collusive bidding or anti-trust violations as these are matters for the Justice Department. Joseph L. DeClerk & Assocs., Inc.-- Request for Reconsideration, B-233166.3, April 6, 1989, 89-1 CPD ¶ 357; Monarch Enter., Inc., B-208631, May 23, 1983, 83-1 CPD ¶ 548.

The protest is dismissed.
