APR 10 1959 APR 10 1959

Honorable Bob Sikes
House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Sikes:

This refers to your letter dated February 20, 1959, and enclosures, concerning the claim of the United States against Mr. [REDACTED]

We have reviewed Mr. [REDACTED] reported indebtedness, and in view of a recent decision of our Office, namely, B-137605, dated April 2, 1959, copy herewith, no further collection action will be taken on that portion of his indebtedness which represents proper charges for packing and transporting his household goods from Florida to California in 1954. However, we are unable to waive collection of that portion of his indebtedness which represents charges for the shipment of personal baggage from California to Florida and return.

We enclose for your information copies of our letters to Mr. [REDACTED] of today and of January 26, 1959, B-135820, and a copy of our letter of today to Lieutenant Colonel Terry concerning this matter.

The enclosures forwarded with your letter are returned.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH CAMPBELL

Comptroller General of the United States
