Subject: Federal Communications Commission: Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Attribution Ownership Rule

Pursuant to section 801(a)(2)(A) of title 5, United States Code, this is our report on a major rule promulgated by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), entitled “Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Attribution Ownership Rule” (MM Docket No. 94-150, 92-51, 87-154, FCC 99-207). We received the rule on August 31, 1999. It was published in the Federal Register as a final rule on September 17, 1999. 64 Fed. Reg. 50622.

The final rule amends the FCC’s broadcast, broadcast cable cross-ownership, and cable/Multipoint Distribution Service cross-ownership attribution rules. According to the FCC, the final rule improves the precision of the attribution rules, avoids disruption in the flow of capital to broadcasting, affords clarity and certainty to regulatees and markets, and facilitates application processing.

Enclosed is our assessment of the FCC’s compliance with the procedural steps required by section 801(a)(1)(B)(i) through (iv) of title 5 with respect to the rule. Our review indicates that FCC complied with the applicable requirements.

If you have any questions about this report, please contact James W. Vickers, Assistant General Counsel, at (202) 512-8210. The official responsible for GAO evaluation work relating to the subject matter of the rule is Judy England-Joseph,
Director, Housing and Community Development Issues. Ms. England-Joseph can be reached at (202) 512-7631.

Sincerely yours,

Robert P. Murphy
General Counsel

Enclosure

Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. §§ 3501-3520

The final rule will require a modification of the Ownership Report form, Form 323. The FCC has solicited comments on the modified information collection, which is subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act. Comments are due by November 16, 1999.

The changes to the form will not be implemented and no response is needed until OMB has approved the changes.
