Who We Are and How We Do Our Work
GAO’s role is to support the Congress in carrying out its constitutional responsibilities and to help improve the performance and assure accountability of government for the benefit of the American people.
Key Approaches

GAO carries out its mission in four fundamental ways:

Oversight—preventing and detecting fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement

Insight—making government more efficient and effective

Foresight—identifying emerging issues

Adjudication—resolving bid protests and providing legal opinions
Core Values

Accountability
Help the Congress oversee federal programs, policies, and operations to ensure accountability to the American people

Integrity
Ensure that our work is professional, objective, fact-based, nonpartisan, nonideological, fair, and balanced

Reliability
Provide high-quality, timely, accurate, useful, clear, and candid information

In FY ’08, GAO delivered hundreds of reports and briefings to aid congressional oversight and decision making and there are many examples showing the impact of our work:

Financial Benefits Example
- Helped to improve spectrum management by extending auction authority.

Non-financial Benefits Example
- Helped to increase requirements for water sprinklers in nursing homes.
The Importance of Collaboration and Capacity Building
The Importance of Collaboration

To strengthen accountability on a domestic and international basis, GAO coordinates in an ongoing way with:

- The National Intergovernmental Audit Forum
- The Domestic Working Group
- The International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions
- The Global Working Group
GAO in the International Community

- GAO is a member of the International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI)
- GAO’s Comptroller General sits on the INTOSAI Governing Board
- GAO facilitates an international auditor fellowship training program
- GAO participates in international peer reviews
- Partnerships are a key enabler of change and help to leverage available resources
Evolving Challenges for Supreme Audit Institutions

Public expectations of government are changing:

- Zero tolerance for corruption
- Desire for enhanced results and improved responsiveness
- Selected trends and challenges that have no boundaries
  - Debt finance and financial markets
  - Changing security threats
  - Global interdependence
  - Climate change
  - Science and technology
  - Governance
GAO, like other audit entities, must strive to recruit and retain employees with the proper skill mix in order to deal effectively with current and emerging challenges. Along these lines, GAO:

- Implemented core leadership training
- Grows faculty from within ("adjuncts")
- Contracts with the National Academy of Sciences (NAS), when needed
- Hired a Chief Scientist
- Designed a state of the art computer lab
Growing Expectations on the Accountability Profession

To face current and emerging challenges, the accountability profession must:

• Identify problem spots before crises emerge
• Recognize problems often need multiple organizations to work together
• Provide more detailed recommendations
• Add value by providing timely special products
• Cope with constrained resources
Ways to Strengthen the Accountability Profession

- Focusing on strategic planning
- Modernizing professional standards
- Leading the way on fiscal stewardship
- Helping identify needed transformations
- Building audit capacity
