Trend 1: Threats Confronting U.S. National Security Interests

- Regional instability (Middle East, Central Asia, Africa)
- Longstanding threats (extremism, terrorism, proliferation of weapons, cybersecurity)
- Emerging threats (energy security, climate change, global recession)
- Need for new capabilities alongside increasingly constrained resources
Trend 1: Threats Confronting U.S. National Security Interests

Related GAO work

- Reviewing U.S. efforts related to Afghanistan, Iraq and other regions in conflict, including reviewing the effect of drawing down resources in Iraq, providing more resources to Afghanistan, and retooling operations in Pakistan.
- Tracking U.S. efforts to combat terrorism abroad.
- Reviewing the government’s efforts to identify and act on credible threats to homeland and border security, as well as those involving biological, chemical, and nuclear dimensions.
- Analyzing the funding and costs of military operations and programs given the fiscal pressures facing the nation.
- Evaluate efforts to ensure the reliability, security, and affordability of energy supply infrastructure and assess the implications of climate change for the federal government.
Trend 2: Fiscal Sustainability and Debt Challenges

Debt Held by the Public Under Two Fiscal Policy Simulations

Source: GAO.

Note: Data are from GAO’s January 2010 analysis based on the Trustees’ assumptions for Social Security and Medicare. Some of the increase in debt has been used to purchase financial assets as part of programs to stabilize financial markets and stimulate the economy. The value of these financial assets has not been subtracted from the total debt held by public in our simulations.

\(^a\) - Based on Congressional Budget Office’s (CBO) January 2010 baseline projections.
\(^b\) - Based on 2009 Annual Report of the Boards of Trustees of the Federal Hospital Insurance and Federal Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Funds (May 12, 2009). Projections showing the percentage of funding from general revenue reaching 45 percent by law trigger a "Medicare funding warning," requiring a proposal from the President in response.
Trend 2: Fiscal Sustainability and Debt Challenges

Combined Federal, State, & Local Surpluses and Deficits

Source: GAO.
Note: Data are from GAO’s January 2010 federal simulations and March 2010 state and local simulations.
Not Just a U.S. Challenge

- Financial market stress in other major industrial nations
- Public debt levels in other major industrial countries have also increased dramatically.
- Projections show many countries on a path of rising debt to GDP ratios.
Moving Forward

- Budget Controls
- Creation of Commission
- Continued Public Education, Discussion, and Debate
Trend 2: Fiscal Sustainability and Debt Challenges

Related GAO work

• Conducting work to assess duplication and overlap among federal programs and agencies.

• Identifying elements to help address the nation’s financial challenges including Social Security, tax reform, retirement, and disability programs; opportunities to reduce spending; and reducing the gap between taxes owed and taxes collected.

• Performing financial statement audits (IRS, Schedule of Federal Debt, FDIC, FHA, Consolidated Financial Statements, SEC).

• Performing long-term fiscal simulations and analyses of federal deficits, federal debt levels, and the state and local sector.

• Identifying and recommending solutions to reduce the risk of waste, fraud, and abuse and improper payments.
Trend 3: Economic Recovery and Restored Growth

- Different scenarios for economic recovery
- Replacement of lost jobs
- Role of consumers
- Housing and commercial real estate
- The timing of fiscal & monetary support
- Managing concerns about inflation
Private Investment Has Fallen Sharply, but is Starting to Recover
American Recovery & Reinvestment Act

- Signed February 17, 2009
- Purpose:
  - Preserve/create jobs and promote recovery
  - Assist those most hurt by the recession
  - Invest in infrastructure
  - Stabilize state and local government budgets
- Total cost (tax and spending): $862 billion, including over $626 billion in additional spending (CBO Estimate)

Recovery Act: GAO Recommendations

- GAO has made 28 recommendations to 5 federal agencies (DOT, HUD, Education, DOL, and OMB) regarding:
  - Accountability and Transparency
  - Reporting on Impact and Guidance
  - Resource Allocation and Capacity
Leverage Single Audit as an effective oversight tool

- Move to earlier reporting on internal controls
- Focus on Recovery Act programs
- Give relief for low-risk programs
- Fund more timely, effective Single Audits
Single Audits:
GAO Matter for Congressional Consideration

- amending the Single Audit Act or enact new legislation that provides for more timely internal control reporting, as well as audit coverage for smaller Recovery Act programs with high risk.

- create mechanisms to provide additional resources to support those charged with carrying out the Single Audit and related audits.
OMB Single Audit Pilot Project: Interim Internal Control Reporting

- Single Audit Internal Control Project
  - Encourage auditors to identify and communicate significant deficiencies and material weaknesses for selected Recovery Act programs 3 months earlier than current 9-month timeframe
- 16 states volunteered to participate
- Coverage
  - About 16 percent of Recovery Act obligations
  - About 23 percent of Recovery Act outlays
Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP)

- GAO given statutory oversight role
- GAO’s TARP reports’ recommendations follow 3 themes:
  - Monitoring the use of funds to meet the Act’s objectives
  - Articulating a better communication strategy
  - Ensuring effective Treasury management
As of May 7, 2010, Treasury had disbursed about $382 billion of the almost $700 billion in program funds, and had received repayments of about $187 billion. A total of about $193 billion remains outstanding (see table below).
