Dear Mr. and Ms. Roades:

Subject: Roades Concrete Construction
Contract No. 50-9158-4-38
DOL File No. IX-85-CA-130

The Assistant Administrator, Employment Standards Administration, United States Department of Labor, by letter dated November 24, 1987, recommended to our Office that the names of Roades Concrete Construction, Tom Roades individually and as owner, and Carol Roades, individually and as owner, be placed on the ineligible bidders list for violations of the Davis-Bacon Act, 40 U.S.C. §§ 276a to 276a-5 (1982), with respect to the above-referenced contract.

We concur with the Assistant Administrator's recommendation. The Davis-Bacon Act provides that the Comptroller General is to debar persons or firms whom he finds have disregarded their obligations to employees under the Act. 40 U.S.C. § 276-2. Our review of the record confirms that there were substantial violations in this case which constitute a disregard of obligations to employees with respect to the minimum wage provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act.

Accordingly, Roades Concrete Construction, Tom Roades, individually and as owner, and Carol Roades individually and as owner, will be included on a list to be distributed to all departments of the government. Pursuant to statutory direction at 40 U.S.C. § 276a-2, no contract shall be awarded to them or to any firm, corporation, partnership, or association in which they, or any of them have an interest until 3 years have elapsed from the date of publication of such list.

The record indicates that Roades Concrete Construction has made full restitution of the back wages due the underpaid employees under the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act.

Sincerely yours,
